

About The New Jersey LPN Programs Dashboard

The New Jersey LPN Programs interactive dashboard provides information on New Jersey Licensed Practical Nurse programs for all prospective students. The dashboard includes data for all 26 schools (31 campuses and 32 programs). The types of LPN schools include: community colleges, technical schools, and private institutions. Programs might be different in terms of total cost and program length.

How to use the dashboard:

- Click on a school from the School List (left side of the dashboard) to get more information about the school (right side of the dashboard)
- Or, select any category of your interest on the right side of the dashboard to get a list of schools
- Or, hover over and click on a dot on the Map to get the school's information
- Click on a dot on the Map to access the school website

Source of data:

The data was acquired from NJCCN's Educational Capacity Survey and schools' website.
